SITUATION

The property is approached from an attractive tree lined gravel driveway with the pasture land on either side leading to a good size gravel parking and turning area with central flower bed and a large lawned ornamental garden area.

To the rear of the property is a grass paddock area with two pigeon lofts which may be suitable for conversion to other uses.

There are two pasture fields adjoining the property offering excellent grazing for horses or livestock and the whole extends to approximately 8.90 acres or thereabouts.

The Property is set amongst the beautiful Laughton Hills area offering access to many local walks and footpaths across the adjacent countryside.

A wide range of amenities are close by in the picturesque town of Market Harborough which provide a wide range of amenities including schooling, medical facilities, shops, theatre, restaurants and public houses. Market Harborough also has mainline services to London St Pancras and other neighbouring centres including the city of Leicester and the wider location offers excellent commuter links being within easy access to the M1, M6 and A14.
